If this estimate is agreed upon by both the financially responsible party (s) and Bio-Trauma 911, Inc., an agreement will be prepared and sent to you for review and signature.

If this project involves decontamination of a crime or trauma scene, Bio-Trauma 911, Inc. will make every attempt to clean the scene of all found blood, body fluids, and other discovered contaminants associated with this incident. Bio-Trauma 911, Inc. will remove and dispose of biohazardous materials in accordance with Federal, State and Local regulations. Once our technicians begin the decontamination process, they may come upon unanticipated elements of the contamination due to the unpredictable dispersion of body fluids during decomposition, accident, suicide, etc. These uncertainties may incur additional costs to the original estimate due to unforeseen conditions involved in the decontamination.

If this project involves hoarding or other extreme cleaning needs, Bio-Trauma 911, Inc. will clean the affected areas that are listed on the service agreement. Additional rooms/areas may incur additional costs to the original estimate.

The information/pricing in this document is confidential and intended for the sole use of the individual (s) named above. If you are not named above, an employee or agent of such, you are hereby notified that any disclosure, duplication distribution or other use of this information without the express written consent of Bio-Trauma 911, Inc. is PROHIBITED.
